19. The Camden Climate Change Alliance is shaped by the members themselves to meet their carbon reduction and environmental challenges. Its success depends on the enthusiasm and commitment of its members and is based on the principle that by working together we can achieve more than we could otherwise do alone.

Are there any ways in which your organisation could become more involved with the Alliance? Please tick any that apply.

- We will keep the basic Climate Commitment
- We would like to share our experience at events
- We have expertise that we could offer
- We would be interested in providing a case study
- We are able to provide meeting space / venue free of charge or at a lower cost
- We would be interested in sponsoring the Alliance's events or the awards
- We would like to exhibit at events
- We would be able to write articles on our environmental work for the website

6. Terms and Conditions

23. Privacy Statement - The intended purpose of gathering the information in this survey is to register organisations as members of the Camden Climate Change Alliance (CCCA), develop services and materials of interest to members, assess the success of, and improve, the Alliance's communications and marketing and to contact you about events and services that may be of interest to your organisation given the information submitted in the survey.

When you complete this survey your organisation will be added to the CCCA website, along with a link to your organisation. This will help to demonstrate the strength of the Alliance and to encourage other organisations to also join. You may choose to opt out of this at any time. The information gathered by this survey is only used for the intended purpose and, if we wish to use it for any other purpose, we will ask you first.

The CCCA works with partners that provide further services and information that would possibly be of interest to organisations joining the Alliance. Where this is the case we will endeavour to pass this information on to you directly, and not pass your information onto our partners unless unavoidable, in which case they will be required to delete the information once it has been used for the purpose that it has been authorised for.

You may request to change your communications preferences, data. And withdraw your information at any time.

Collecting information automatically – We collect statistics about your visit to the CCCA website. We use this information to track user activity which in turn helps us to improve the website. These statistics do not contain personal data and cannot be traced back to an individual. We use 'cookies' to collect this statistical information. However, the cookies themselves do not store personal information.

Confidentiality/security - All Camden Council employees and data processors with access to, and associated with the processing of, personal data are obliged to respect the confidentiality of our visitors' personal data. We ensure that your personal data will not be disclosed to government institutions and authorities
